

Health Services Advisory Group (HSAG) Invites You to Register for this Behavioral Health Webinar

Inpatient Psychiatric Treatment: A Preview Friday, May 11, 2018 • 9–10 a.m. PST (12 p.m. EST)

HSAG is pleased to present the second behavioral health (BH) educational webinar of 2018. There are many unknowns and misperceptions about inpatient psychiatric treatment and most individuals have never seen the inside of an inpatient psychiatric facility. In this webinar, HSAG will present the typical process of admission to an inpatient facility, treatment, and the daily routine. Explore a few common myths and view images from several different inpatient settings. Please share this no-cost webinar with your friends, family, and colleagues.

Dennette Janus, MA, LPC, has worked clinically in behavioral health and human services for 25 years and is now a quality improvement specialist with HSAG. Ms. Janus currently works to decrease preventable psychiatric readmissions through community stakeholder outreach and education as well as quality improvement efforts with inpatient behavioral health facilities in Arizona and California. She has developed and facilitated numerous educational webinars, readmission intervention flyers, a readmission audit tool, and most recently, a series of statewide strategy sessions on preventing psychiatric readmissions.

Throughout her career Ms. Janus has worked in various settings, including traditional outpatient counseling, crisis assessment and intervention in emergency departments (EDs) and through the 911 system, case management and utilization review in inpatient settings, community education and marketing, child protection, legal advocacy, critical incident stress intervention, domestic violence and substance abuse evaluation, group facilitation, intensive case management, Assertive Community Treatment and was a group home staff member.

Ms. Janus' volunteer experience includes Mental Health Professional with the American Red Cross after Hurricane Katrina and the Armed Forces Emergency Services program, Victim's Advocate with law enforcement, domestic violence hotline staff, a court-appointed special advocate (CASA), and a General Education Diploma (GED) tutor for a literacy agency in the county jail.
